

BULLDOG STUD CONTRACT

Meins Bulldog Kennel reserves the right to refuse stud service to any bitch without reason or explanation.

We ship cooled semen. Shipping cost is $75/shipment in addition to a one time stud fee.

We only breed our studs to healthy, AKC reg bitches who have had a least one prior heat cycle and exhibit quality in conformation. Bitch owner must agree to place all puppies resulting from breeding to our studs responsibly. Puppies will not be sold to brokers, pet stores or puppy mills. Puppies that have serious conformational faults will be sold with spay/neuter contracts.

If the bitch does not conceive, a repeat breeding is offered one time within the next calendar year at no charge other than shipping cost if semen is to be shipped. The repeat breeding is not transferable to another bitch. If the stud of choice is unavailable a substitute will be offered.

Bitch owner is responsible for all veterinary charges related to the breeding, care of the pregnant female, c-section and care of the puppies. A litter is considered (2) or more puppies.
